

Friends,

31 May 2019

Motivational speaker Zig Ziglar said, "If you aim for nothing, you'll hit it every time." How true that is for goals both business and personal, temporal and eternal. Last month we prayerfully set a goal of 20% support by the time this prayer letter was to be sent, and we are now at 21% promised support. Praise the Lord! If we are to be on the field by summer 2020 (a goal that I believe would please the Lord), we need to grow by 6% each month. Will you help us pray toward that end?

Travels

We've had the privilege of preaching and/or presenting in churches in Tennessee, North Carolina, our current home Virginia, and what we call home, South Carolina. Every church is truly special to us, and several moments stand out. None was more significant than being able to present our work at Calvary Baptist Church in Smithfield, Va. This is the building where God confirmed our call to missions during the funeral of Pastor Dan Gray in spring 2018; to stand where he stood and where his son now ministers was very special for me. It's almost like going back to the spot where you got saved.

Schedule

In our last letter we asked prayers for our schedule to fill from May to August. God has done just that, as we now have only three empty Sundays from now through the end of August. We'll be stopping in at local churches on Wednesdays.

We have an opportunity in October to work Arizona, an area where we have not previously sought support. The Lord has provided for us to be in a missions conference at a church where a key former member of Faith Baptist Church (who was at RAF Lakenheath and chair of the pulpit committee) is now stationed. If things work out as we hope, we could present our ministry in six other churches between Tucson and Phoenix. If you know a pastor in that area, let us know!

Meanwhile in England

Faith Baptist Church is completing the process of becoming a charity (similar to our 501(c)(3) nonprofit status). Pray for the process to move quickly and smoothly.

We desire to make a trip to see our church family prior to going there permanently. It appears that God may be keeping our schedule open for a window of time when we could be with them. We will be seeking the Lord's will in the matter, and may have an opportunity where you could give to help us get there.

What can you pray for?

- The power of God upon praying, preaching, presenting, making phone calls, and sending letters and e-mails
- Our son Christian, for college decisions and finances to match (We have seen the Lord leading in this matter already and pray it continues)
- A sufficient support level for Tammy to be able to travel with me full time
- A completely full schedule; September – November has a handful of openings and we only have one on the books past mid-November
