

MILITARY MISSIONARIES SERVING GOD IN ENGLAND

Friends,

28 Mar 2023

Let's quickly get into answered prayers and then get to the new ones.

Answers to Prayer

The energy company: you may remember that the ombudsman ruled in our favour in the matter of an outstanding energy bill. The company actually sent us a refund check for overpayment, but then has created a second account and attempted to bill us for a sum close to the amount of money they've refunded us. Stay tuned!

I had asked you to pray for a few individuals that needed a real work of God done on their behalf. I have seen some positive changes in one, a little more in another. For the final one, I have watched from a distance as this person's bad choices have created much hardship. I hope you understand my heart when I say this: I am not praying for things to suddenly get better. I am praying for God to do His perfect work in this individual's life, and if that's through suffering, may the will of the Lord be done to bring about the necessary changes.

Ministry and Travel Updates

We returned to America for a short time in January to preach a faith promise Sunday, to celebrate a late Christmas with family, and to get a little R&R. I came back after two weeks, but Tammy stayed a few additional weeks. Praise the Lord that all of our travel went as planned and we've been successfully reunited!

During that time, two more churches took us on for support and, just eight days ago, we preached virtually for a missions conference and were taken on for support. Costs of energy, food and rent have all increased substantially in the 12 months we've been here, reaching a month-high 11.1% rate of inflation back in October. To give you a tangible way to think of it, if inflation continues at this rate, in eight more years we would need twice as much support as we came on. Pray for stabilisation of the economy and an inflation rate of closer to 3%. The Lord is supplying our needs through these new churches and some currently supporting churches who have increased their giving levels, one I just learned of last week.

We completed canvassing of a new village north of Lakenheath in February and March, and look to reach areas south of the church between the two bases next.

Continue to pray for fruit in our witnessing and canvassing opportunities. Pray for a young lady named Cee that I was able to lead to the Lord last week. God is still in the soul-saving business!
